TO FRIENDS OF LAMBDA RISING

Lambda Rising

We are proud to be able to offer you the best WHOLE GAY CATALOG ever; but we feel that it is more than just a catalog. It represents a faith in the future of fine gay literature; a faith held by publishers, by booksellers and, most importantly, by you, the readers.

We want this catalog to be seen as an assertion that lesbians and gay men are a positive and integral part of America's social, cultural and political life. LAMBDA RISING'S flagship store occupies prime retail space on one of the major shopping corridors in the Nation's Capital where customers enter our doors with an openness born of confidence and pride; and THE WHOLE GAY CATALOG can be found in homes across the land as well as libraries, universities and other institutions throughout the world.

This catalog is also a symbol of hope. A mother from Seattle, coming to terms with her son's sexuality, wrote to say, "...hopefully, education and organizations such as LAMBDA RISING will influence attitudes in a positive way so that gay people can live normal, open lives."

While we share space on the cutting edge of a movement to end discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, we are also a business. This catalog is a testament to our success, our customers' faith in us, and the respect we've earned from the business community. You, our customers, are the key to that success and we thank you for helping THE WHOLE GAY CATALOG and LAMBDA RISING thrive. We consider you a vital part of our extended family.

As part of our continuing growth, you will see that we have rounded out our offerings to include music, videos, periodicals and gifts. We think this was an important move because it allows our catalog customers access to more of the products that our store customers have enjoyed for over twelve years.

A college man from New York sent us a note: "I have never been disappointed in your service. That's why I feel free to recommend you to others." We vow to continue offering speedy, friendly service with special attention to your interests and needs. Of course, your comments and suggestions are always appreciated.

So, enjoy your new WHOLE GAY CATALOG. Should you ever be in Washington or Baltimore, please drop in for a visit, and celebrate the gay experience with us!

Symbols to help guide you through these pages.

Looking for a first-rate book in a specific subject area? Preparing a reading list? Making recommendations to a library committee? Don't know where to start?

We have picked out a number of classics, best sellers and recognized works in the field and marked them with lambda symbols to draw your attention to these fine works.

In response to requests from many customers, we have designated books with the appropriate sexual symbol if that book seems to be primarily of interest to a particular gender. Those without symbols are of general interest.

We hope you will find these recommendations and guides helpful as you choose from among the hundreds of fine works available in The Whole Gay Catalog.

Videos

We're really starting to flesh out the meaning of "whole" in this catalog's title by expanding our offerings to include these fine videos. While you may find some of these tapes at your local video outlet, we carry a number not generally available, especially in places such as Chugwater, Wyoming or Moscow Mills, Missouri. We're making a few friendly digs at towns in the nation's bread basket to let you know we're happy that people everywhere have access to the world's largest gay and lesbian bookstore. We hope you get the picture.

A few caveats: Please be sure to write the correct inventory number by your selection. To be sure all is clear, write "Beta" or "VHS" on the order form after the title you select. It's no fun to get a Beta tape when your system is VHS and vice versa. Also, we cannot accept returns on opened videotapes except in cases of manufacturing defects. So be sure you know what you're ordering. These tapes may not be copied or used by video rental outlets.

Before You Begin to Browse

We hope you enjoy your new Whole Gay Catalog. It was typeset and composed on a Compag Deskpro 286 Personal Computer using a powerful desktop publishing system called DO IT!, developed by Studio Software of Irvine, California. Confident the catalog looks fine, we do see ways we may fine tune our use of DO IT! to produce even better looking publications in the future.

You may note that unessential first articles were dropped from titles in the index and on the display pages. This was done to prevent a great amount of titles showing up under "A" and "THE" in the index listings and to aid computer sorting and alphabetization. THE LITTLE DEATH, a good mystery by Michael Nava, becomes LITTLE DEATH, and so on.

Due to the addition of the indexes, we weren't obligated to arrange books in any particular order within the sections which eased layout considerably. Looking for a certain title or author? Use the index. Due to their relatively small number, and since they are found in only specific sections, videos, records and tapes, gifts, and periodicals are not included in the index.

MURPHY'S MANOR

by Kurt Erichsen

In this issue of The Whole Gay Catalog we are featuring the work of two cartoonists, N. Leigh Dunlap, creator of Morgan Calabrese, and Kurt Erichsen, creator of Murphy's Manor and other strips. To find out more about these artists please turn to page 96.

Periodicals

From Thomas Paine's best seller, "Common Sense," to the papers circulated when this country's labor force was organizing and unionizing, and on to the "undergrounds" of the late sixties and early seventies, the small, free press has been an American tradition. The era that produced peace demonstrations and black civil rights movements also saw the rise of many grass roots publications which served as a voice for lesbians and gay men. Many have endured and matured and serve us today. By compiling anthologies of poetry, fiction and thought, women especially have made good use of the small press and given us literature that otherwise would have never been seen. We have also seen the appearance of magazines and journals catering to our interests and needs.

Herein is a good sampling of what's available from across the land. Please understand that Lambda Rising is not a subscription service, we can offer only the most recent issue of each publication we have on hand. Prices are subject to change and availability of some publications cannot always be assured; but we'll do our best to get you the item you want.

Travel Guides & Journals

While we were at the American Booksellers Association Convention in New Orleans this summer, a frequent lament among publishers who maintained mailing lists was, "We can't keep track of our nomadic gay customers!" It seems we are a mobile lot. Though we don't all change residences with the seasons we do seem to gad from city to city, state to state, country to country. If you're going on a tour of Europe, or simply taking your lover to meet the folks, or just slipping away from your routine for a few days, here are books which will save you time and hassle by helping you pinpoint just what you want to do. We stock the latest editions available.

You should also check our Periodicals section to see if there's a local publication to give you more flavor of the locale. And if your just going to lounge around in your own back yard, why not select a travel memoir or journal by E.M. Forster, Brendan Behan, or Gore Vidal to transport yourself cheaply and euphorically to another land.

COLORFUL PEOPLE AND PLACES

STATES OF DESIRE: Travels in Gay America

by Edmund White

This new edition of the book generally acknowledged to be the best ever written about gay America has a new introduction by the author. A city by city picture of how gay men live today across the entire country.

S0164 Paperback $8.95

LAST LETTERS FROM HAV

by Jan Morris

The first substantial portrait of the city that enthralled Polo, Tolstoy, and Lawrence and has remained virtually unknown to ordinary travelers. A book that conveys the sense of bafflement and wonder of a sensitive travel writer.

B0292 Hardbound $14.95

TRAVELS IN THE CONGO

by Andre Gide

Dedicated to Joseph Conrad, these journals of Gide's travels as a special envoy of the Colonial Ministry of France illustrate as matters of fact some of what Conrad conveyed so devastatingly in HEART OF DARKNESS.

B0381 Paperback $6.95

TRAVEL JOURNALS

ODYSSEUS

An excellent travel guide whose editors check out all the places listed each year prior to publication. Includes USA and Canada as well as 28 foreign countries. Lists hotels, motels, bed and breakfasts, resort apartments, ranches, camping sites, and private homes. Each section contains a brief description of important tourist information.

A0060 Paperback $12.95

THEIR HEADS ARE GREEN AND THEIR HANDS ARE BLUE

by Paul Bowles

Eight travel essays from areas unencumbered by the trappings and luxuries of the west by a sympathetic and discerning interpreter. He is alert to what is bizarre and what is wise in these distant lands.

K0593 Paperback $8.50

HINDOO HOLIDAY: An Indian Journal

by J. R. Ackerley

The journal of the author's time spent as private secretary, comforter and friend to the Maharajah of Chhokrapur. Full of the irony, absurdity, and farce of life in India as well as the dignity and richness of an ancient culture. Written with an immediacy and excellence that time will never dim.

B0242 Paperback $4.95

BRENDAN BEHAN'S NEW YORK

by Brendan Behan, drawings by Paul Hogarth

This is no travel guide, no comprehensive catalogue of campy Manhattan hangouts—but his own highly personalized, abundantly anecdotal, unashamedly haphazard, coyly wicked and witty look at the City and its natives. Generously illustrated with brisk sketches.

K0564 Paperback $8.95

BRENDAN BEHAN'S ISLAND

by Brendan Behan, drawings by Paul Hogarth

To tour Ireland with Brendan is to see it through the eyes of a man with a vision as fresh and passionate and funny and magic as the island herself. "You can almost smell these pencil drawings of pubs and peasants and slum children and bogs and currachs and graveyards." Louis MacNiece

K0629 Paperback $8.95

BOB DAMRON'S ADDRESS BOOK

This convenient and ever-popular pocket guide lists bars, restaurants, publications, bookstores, hot lines, switchboards and much, much more! U.S., Canadian and Mexican listings. Primarily for men.

A0027 Paperback $12.00

GAIA'S GUIDE, 1987

Covering lands as far-flung as Peru, Singapore and South Africa, this is probably the best women's world guide. Star code helps rate what's best for you as it guides you city-by-city at home and abroad.

PLACES OF INTEREST: Map Guide, USA and Canada

A city-by-city guide presented in map format, with symbol-coded listings for entertainment, activities, facilities, clientele, and services. Attractive and convenient for the traveler or tour guide. Lambda Rising will stock the most recent edition of this guide, issued on a yearly basis.

A0034 Paperback $10.00

OTHER ITALY

by David Price and Gotthard Schuh

A personal view of the lingering continuity of traditional life in the countryside, provinces and ancient towns of Italy. Complemented by photographs taken in the '40s and '50s, this book shows the assault on an ancient life that is yet, somehow, still surviving.

T0356 Paperback $6.50

ARABIAN SANDS

by Wilfred Thesiger

"Following worthily in the tradition of Burton, Boughty, Lawrence, Philby and Thomas, it is, very likely, the book about Arabia to end all books about Arabia." Lord Kinross, Daily Telegraph. Sweet Arabian nights...young Arabian men...

B0373 Paperback $4.95

VIDAL IN VENICE

by Gore Vidal

"Perhaps the most beautiful cliché on earth," says the author. He reveals the blood and intrigue, as well as the beauty, in describing how Venice survived as an independent state for more than a thousand years. He parallels some signs of its decline with phenomena in our own country.

K0638 Hardbound $22.95

BEST GUIDE TO AMSTERDAM

Pocket-sized and overwhelmingly comprehensive, this little travel buddy will take you to gay entertainment, restaurants, saunas, public celebrations, shops and boutiques, etc., etc., etc.! An excellent set of tips for travelers, as well. Includes city map with 119 spots of interest clearly marked.

A0007 Paperback $7.95

HIP POCKET GUIDE TO LOS ANGELES

Reference

From an early age we were directed, by teacher and parent alike (only grandparents had the stamina to answer endless questions), to confront huge volumes of infinite grey pages to satisfy our "who's, what's, when's, where's and why's." We often chose ignorance rather than confront those hefty tomes and much of adult society is gripped in a full-blown phobia of reference works. As a result, in most public libraries costly volumes of wonderful information still crack when opened and fill the air with fresh ink and paper smells. If you are one of those afflicted, you are already on the road to recovery because you hold in your hand The Whole Gay Catalog, one of the best references of gay and lesbian literature available. Assure your cure by picking an area that interests you and purchasing a related work. The works herein are not hefty or grey. Remember, you're bound to discover many facts about your subject that you never knew, or pick up delightful morsels of unrelated information as you browse.

Cuisine

A writer's lips veritably smack with stereotypical phrases while attempting to describe this genre of book for a gay catalog. It seems we all know a "kitchen queen" who's into flambe or a "deli dyke" who can whip up something delectable with what's on hand. Fact is, good food is good for you and fun to eat. Ergo, everybody, child, woman, and man, should be a half-way decent cook. Everybody! If you aren't, or if you want to improve, here are books to help. Forget the Supreme Court and Hardwick v. Bowers while you cook: a good cook should be calm and imbue the food with love and strength. Cook up love and it better be good! Or eat with gusto and kiss the cook!

ALICE B. TOKLAS COOKBOOK
by Alice B. Toklas

This is an excellent collection of sublime recipes that will convert the fiercest Francophobe and send the dullest cook to the kitchen to try new dishes. They're presented as only Alice could, with a zest for life and just plain good writing.

Health, Self-help, & Sexuality

Now, more than ever, gay men, and lesbians as well, in fact, the whole population has become concerned with health. Not only have we been in the midst of a fitness craze, we have been confronted with the awful spectre of an incurable disease. This disease demands that we change our sexual habits as well as keep our bodies in a high state of health and resistance. Of course, a healthy body depends to a large degree on a healthy mind. And our sexuality is affected by both. This section contains a range of books addressing many concerns associated with the well-being, or the lack thereof, of ourselves, our relationships, our interactions with our world.

Coming Out

Celebrated author Rita Mae Brown was in our D.C. store this summer. She remarked that if everybody who is gay mustered the courage and integrity to come out, society would drop its jaw in amazement and hastily retreat from its homophobic ways rather than persecute community members and loved ones. Researchers generally agree that homosexuals comprise a tenth of the U.S. population. Imagine the impact of more than 20 million homosexual Americans, their families and friends, stepping forward and saying "NO!" to oppression. To benefit themselves, since it is damaging to live a lie, as well as the gay community, since there is strength in numbers, everyone who is gay has an obligation to come out when they are decently able. The key words are "courage" and "integrity." While these books can't impart those attributes they can help clarify values, dispel myths and stereotypes, give advice, and help build a strong, positive self-identity. Coming out is an act of bravery and honesty which requires admitting what you are and celebrating it!

Family and friends! Take note of this section!

Family Life

One of the most ridiculous charges hurled at gay men and lesbians is that they are a threat to family life. We all came from families and the majority of us cherish those relations. Many gay men and lesbians are mothers and fathers. No quarter of the gay community seeks to disrupt or outlaw the activities of the traditional nuclear family. A family is a place of retreat, of love, of reassuring structure. Every person, gay or straight, needs this sustenance and may find it in traditional as well as nontraditional ways. Gay men and lesbians can easily love, live in, cope with, and nourish a family environment. Essentially, this collection is about being gay, or being with gays, in a family environment. It contains books for family members and friends of gays, for gay parents and would-be gay parents. We are family!

Social Sciences

Understanding ourselves, how we interact with each other, and how whole societies move, is not as easy as opening a book. Though just about every book, fiction and nonfiction alike, is a study in human interaction, works on anthropology, psychology, and sociology can help cup the ear to the hum of life's machinery to learn the intricacies of its smallest working components, humans, as they mesh to form cultures and sub-cultures, societies and civilizations. As an often oppressed minority, this is information we need to decide where we want to be socially and to move ourselves into that position as smoothly as possible.

SUBJECT WOMEN: Where Women Stand Today, Politically, Economically, Socially, Emotionally

Politics, Liberation, & the Law

Lately, we have been hard pressed. AIDS has generated homophobic hysteria among the ignorant. Nazisque public figures have called for the tattooing or internment of gay men. The country learned that the Supreme Court, ruling in Hardwick v. Bowers, is not the bastion of intelligence it's said to be. Blathering about Judeo-Christian tradition, threat to family life, and just about every other old, purely lame argument we've heard, a majority of the justices upheld the right of states to have so-called sodomy laws. On top of all this we've had to keep up with our usual struggles such as the attempted recall by fundamentalists (they failed) of a mayor in North Carolina who is friendly to our cause. The books herein deal with the issues raised, obstacles faced, and triumphs won in the political and legal struggles of gays and lesbians, people of color, feminists. We have common enemies. Welcome to the front.

Spirituality & Philosophy

Lesbians and gay men should not eschew spirituality or religion simply because a few "prophets" (profiteers?) appear on television, thump a bible, and excoriate our love. A marvelous order, high law, or connectedness reigns in our universe. When we seek to touch it, that is spirituality and it enriches our lives. Whether we choose to philosophize about our relation to our universe, or simply practice the Golden Rule and try to be gentle persons, or involve ourselves in the complexities of the older religions, or seek to emulate a messiah in the tradition of American churches (Fear and bigotry had no place in Jesus' life!), we dip our hands into the stream of the cosmos.

History & Heritage

Probably very few, if any, academic institutions offer a course in gay history; but we do indeed have a heritage and it consists of more than mentions of ancient Greece or a caesar's lover. It spans all time. During the past fifteen years, due in part to the struggles of the feminist and gay communities, straight and gay scholars, searching for the roots of our clamor for recognition and equality, have published many works which provide gay men and women a sense of historical identity. Most important are those which show that we helped found and build this nation and have worked, indeed still are working, to realize the American dream of justice and equality for all.

Biography & Autobiography

What most fascinates a person? Other people. These biographies and autobiographies are the microscopes and mirrors which help quell our almost pathological curiosity about our fellow humans. They also acquaint us with the milieu of writers, composers, scientists, statespeople, entertainers, and even the less celebrated. Most importantly, these works about the lives, achievements, and relationships of gay men and lesbians, their families and friends, provide us with a continuing story of oppression and liberation which imparts understanding and inspiration.

MEMORIES AND IMPRESSIONS

by Ford Madox Ford

This gives us an enchanting glimpse of the very special world in which Ford was raised. Artists of various disciplines were familiar to him as friends and visitors—Swinburne, Rossetti, Whistler, Liszt and Carlisle. He does not tell of Swinburne cavorting in the nude with Carlisle in Rossetti's home, but it's such an old saw, you won't miss it! The rest is excellent.

K0639 Paperback $9.50

DARLINGHISSIMA: Letters to a Friend

by Jane Flanner

Darlinghissima was a word invented by Janet Flanner, eminent journalist for the "New Yorker," which she used to open her letters to Natalia Murray. This salutation symbolizes perfectly what this book is about: an extraordinary friendship between two women of two different cultures and continents, yet entirely devoted to each other.

Anthologies, Collections, & Criticism

An extraordinary range of literature swells this rather odd chapter. Primarily, the inventory consists of volumes resulting from collaboration by artists or compilations by editors; but it also contains a fair amount of hard to classify books which contain an olio of forms such as essays, poems, and interviews. Lesbian and black feminist reading is well represented, and there is an impressive body of literary criticism and comment as well. Looking for collections by individual authors? Please check the index.

NORTON ANTHOLOGY OF LITERATURE BY WOMEN

GIFT CERTIFICATE

Can't figure out what to get that certain someone? Let them decide!

Fill out a gift certificate request on the back of an order form. Enter the amount on the front of the order form as you would a book or gift item. If you order only gift certificates you needn't pay the $2.50 handling fee.

Of course, you may use your credit card to buy gift certificates. Call us toll free at 1-800-621-6969 or enter your card information on the mail order form and send it in.

When we receive your instructions, we'll send your friend, or friends, a gift certificate from you along with a copy of our catalog and latest newsletter. Soon, they'll be happily shopping at the world's largest gay and lesbian bookstore, while you relax.

ABOUT OUR TOLL FREE LINE

The easiest and quickest way for you to order is by calling us, toll free, at 1-800-621-6969 and using your VISA, Mastercard, Choice, or American Express card. You may use this number from 10 a.m. until midnight, Eastern Time, every day. Also use this number for inquiries.

OUR NUMBER IS NOT A HOT LINE! The operators who answer are not trained as counselors, nor do they have the resources to dispense any information other than that pertaining to orders or books available from Lambda Rising.

If you want information on coming out, nationwide referrals, AIDS, etc., we suggest you call the NATIONAL GAY/LESBIAN CRISIS LINE, Monday through Friday from 3 to 9 p.m., Eastern Time. New York, Alaska and Hawaii residents call 1-212-529-1604, all others call, toll free, 1-800-221-7044.

GETTING BOOKS INTO YOUR HANDS

Please do not send cash or stamps as payment. Orders are filled within three days and are shipped by United Parcel Service (U.P.S.) unless you specify otherwise. Although it rarely takes so long, please allow three to four weeks for delivery, especially if you have specified shipment by U.S. Postal Service (U.S.P.S.) All orders are discreetly and securely packaged.

If you would like any of your order sent as a gift, let us know and we will add a gift card. Stumped? Not sure what a friend would like? See page 54 for GIFT CERTIFICATE information.

SPEEDIER SHIPPING OPTIONS

Whether you are a foreign or domestic customer, you may request speedier delivery methods. Be prepared to pay the extra costs incurred plus the $2.50 handling fee.

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED

If you are not totally satisfied with your purchase, please return it in saleable condition within 15 days for full refund, credit or exchange.

PRICE CHANGES, TITLE AVAILABILITY

It is impossible for us to avoid occasional price changes mandated by the publishers. Consequently, all prices are subject to change without notice. We hate to see titles go out of print as much as you do. This too is a result of publishers' actions. Although price changes and deletions were made right up until catalog press time, it's impossible to say what changes will occur from week to week.

OUTSIDE THE CONTINENTAL U.S.?

Any orders sent outside the 48 contiguous states will be sent Fourth Class Book Rate (U.S.P.S.) Any order sent to countries other than the U.S. will be charged the $2.50 handling fee plus the actual cost of postage.

All prices quoted are in U.S. funds. Canadian and other foreign customers should pay with a major credit card, noted above, unless other arrangements have been made.

Poetry

Here we have gathered a good number of major works by principal figures plus a number of books by promising young poets. The presence of mainstream figures only emphasizes the lack of attention by both popular and academic critics to the homosexual themes and undertones in their work. The effect of gay authors on modern poetry has been profound; the promise of contemporary lesbian writers is that paths will be broadened and new trails blazed in poetic expression.

WALT WHITMAN: The Complete Poems

edited by Francis Murphy

LEAVES OF GRASS went through 8 revisions; Murphy has revised the 1891 death-bed edition to include earlier versions of many poems and supplemented the text with notes to help the reader follow Whitman's development. An excellent resource about the most profoundly influential poet.

P0320 Paperback $6.95

MY SOUL AND I: The Inner Life of Walt Whitman

by David Cavitch

Whitman's family life is explored as the central force that shaped his poetry. By recreating the tensions of his family he was driven to deeper conflicts and poetic insights. The essential story of Whitman's creative life and its troubled evolution.

B0347 Hardbound $19.95

PORTABLE WALT WHITMAN

revised and enlarged by Mark Van Doren

This Penguin edition features selections from the 1850 through the 1891 versions of LEAVES OF GRASS, plus selections from Whitman's two major prose works, DEMOCRATIC VISTAS and SPECIMEN DAYS. This is the body of work of a man whose impact has been far greater than his reputation.

P0195 Paperback $6.95

WALT WHITMAN: A Life

by Justin Kaplan

Kaplan's biography brings to life the thoughts, the work, the loves, the friendships, the passions, and the strange, ambiguous charm of a great American figure, perhaps the only poet of world stature our culture has produced, and one of its most enigmatic and fascinating figures.

P0208 Paperback $8.95

WALT WHITMAN: The Making of the Poet

by Paul Zweig

Here is the first convincing account of a great mystery in American literature: The transformation of Whitman during the 1850s from unpromising writer and hack journalist to America's most original and innovative poet. Chapter "Strange Miscellany" addresses his homosexuality.

B0333 Paperback $8.95

WALT WHITMAN

BEGINNING WITH O

by Olga Broumas

"An impassioned lyric outburst, this is a book of letting go, of wild avowals, and unabashed eroticism. It is a work steeped in the light of Greek myth that is part of the poet's heritage and imbued with an intuitive sense of dramatic conflicts and resolutions, high style, and musical form." Stanley Kunitz

P0318 Paperback $5.95

FROM SILHOUETTE TO SUNLIGHT

by Vera Taicher

"Sadly, today's popular vehicle for understanding seems to be an exercise class rather than an encounter group, but the meaningfulness, the present worth, and the future therapeutic value derived from Vera's poetry will remain applicable as long as there are walls." Kent Feibend

MALE MUSE: A Gay Anthology

edited by Ian Young

One of the first gay anthologies, wide-ranging over the field of contemporary writers. More than forty poets represented.

P0194 Paperback $7.95

AMERICAN PRIMITIVE

by Mary Oliver

Winner of the 1984 Pulitzer Prize for poetry, these fifty poems enunciate the renewals of nature and the renewals of humanity in love, the wilderness that survives within our bodies and outside. "...the cords of my body stretching/and singing in the/heaven of appetite."

P0312 Paperback $6.95

SAPPHO, POEMS AND FRAGMENTS

edited by Josephine Balmer

First, and arguably finest, lesbian poet, Sappho flourished in the 6th century BC. This new translation brings together all the poems and fragments in an accessible, beautifully illustrated volume and will delight scholars, feminists and poetry lovers.

P0311 Paperback $6.95

LATE SETTINGS

by James Merrill

Readers wait for the pen drippings of this idiosyncratic, twentieth century poetry master because he is writing down their times, their feelings, their ideals, their world.

P0307 Paperback $6.95

PARTY'S OVER

by Chasen Gaver

The author says this is either a crime novel, an atmospheric novel about the DC party scene during the '70s, or an allegorical work symbolizing the tension modern people experience when traditional religious teachings fail to explain the world. You decide!

P0323 Paperback $6.00

TRYING TO BE AN HONEST WOMAN

by Judith Barrington

The senseless, shameful blush of half nude women when they confront men on a hiking trail. Stomping swastikas on the beach. This poet has traveled much, physically and emotionally. She show how women are like gardens.

P0322 Paperback $6.95

SLEEP AND DREAM

by Duane Michals

"Do not wake yet, it is too early." The images evoked by this volume of poetry (balanced with art, photography and free hand script) are humorous, erotic and surreal. Makes a touching gift to your loved one or for yourself.

P0309 Paperback $11.95

WE SAY WE LOVE EACH OTHER

by Mimie Bruce Pratt

These poems about the south, her childhood, the love between women, are wonderfully detailed, precise, evocative and wise. She is a poet of clean expression. Her voice is powerful. Her song true.

P0304 Paperback $5.95

FEW DAYS

by James Schuyler

Put simply--absolutely beautiful! Even if you loathe poetry you won't put this rose of a book down. Schuyler's poetry pays heartbreaking attention to detail, to the monologue of the mind, to the wordplay between people. His poems to Joe and Tom, friends of his life, are especially moving.

P0246 Paperback $8.95

TOUCH TO MY TONGUE

by Daphne Marlatt

Illustrated with photographs by Cheryl Sourkes that reflect the first human marks when writing and pictures were one, this collection of free verse and poetic essays puts love and sensitivity into a new, sensual, abstract language.

P0303 Paperback $9.00

W.H. AUDEN

W. H. AUDEN

edited by Stan Smith

Political and sexual experimentation, exercises in form, echoing other poets, show Auden's direct poetic confrontation with the idea of the authentic, autonomous self. Part of a series showing how the insights of Marxism, feminism and deconstruction open up exciting new ways to read the works of commonly studied writers.

K0641 Paperback $6.95

AUDEN IN LOVE

P0227 Paperback $8.95

STRAWBERRIES

by Barbara Noda

What wonderful poems! Barbara wraps up everyday life, it's trauma and it's treats, in wonderful language. Looking in her old mother's eyes and telling her she's gay, describing the deep breathing of her lover as a heaving sea with nets dragged into shore, she makes everything so beautiful, so high, so deep.

P0328 Paperback $2.95

GEECHIES

by Gregory Millard

"Geechies?/ Back in slavery times/three slaves got off/Massuh's wagon to pee./The wagon rolled on and left/them behind and they were/captured by Cree Indians./ Massuh never missed them." This is the real South, from the swamp slime of hatred to the magnolia blossom sweetness of life.

P0263 Paperback $5.95

AUDEN: An American Friendship

by Charles H. Miller

This intimate memoir of the great poet conveys a more personal sense of Auden than any standard biography. Full of anecdotes, conversations, and revealing glimpses.

P0222 Hardbound $14.95

AUDEN: Carnival of Intellect

by Edward Callan

Edward Callan is, according to Samuel Hynes (author of THE AUDEN GENERATION) "one of the very best American critics of Auden's poetry." Callan here presents a brilliant, rounded portrait of Auden, his world, and his work.

P0223 Hardbound $25.00

W. H. AUDEN: The Life of a Poet

by Charles Osborne

P0330 Paperback $3.95

EPITAPHS FOR THE PLAGUE DEAD

by Robert Boucheron

"Each of these 56 poems is a mini-novel in which one of the gay dead awakens to tell his story. Witty, bitter, and heartbreaking, these portraits serve as rhyming tombstones for a culture in the midst of tragedy. [He] has shown that even death can be the subject for the most graceful, most purifying art."

Richard Hall

P0331 Paperback $5.95

SELECTED POEMS

by John Ashbery

Not until this remarkable book have readers savored in one volume Ashbery's entire corpus. From ten collections the poet himself has made his own choice of 138 poems, including short lyrics, haiku, prose poems, selections from Shadow Train, and many of his major long poems.

DIVING INTO THE WRECKAGE: Poems 1971-1972

"These are poems taut with pain and intelligence, honed by a careful clear-eyed range and precise compassion. Every book she writes is stronger and farther along. As the title suggests, these poems are brought up from the depths of her psyche, and our own." Marge Piercy

Stage & Screen

What a tragic comedy. Gay people have contributed so much to the lively arts. Society is moved by our plays, prizes our films, marvels at our dance, applauds our acting, sings our songs; yet its courts uphold laws denying our love. Traditionally, the fields of theater, film, dance, and music have posed less resistance to us. Why? Because of our talent, hard work, and even our knack for outrageousness and humor, the industry relies on us. We sell. Still, show biz continues to worry about image. Consider Rock Hudson. Until the public becomes socially sophisticated enough to appreciate talent regardless of sexuality, this will probably prevail.

HOLLYWOOD FROM VIETNAM TO REAGAN

by Robin Wood

The crisis in ideological confidence of the '70s has resulted in reactionary films in the '80s. Enacted on many levels in film, this trend in society is ably traced by the author to some exciting and provocative conclusions. Some chapter headings: Smart-Ass and Cutie-Pie; The American Nightmare: Horror in the 70s; Brian De Palma: The Politics of Castration; Images and Women; From Buddies to Lovers. Well illustrated.

Graphic Arts

Why is it? Because of a sensitivity born of societal persecution? A learned knack? A rampant gene? Echoing a stereotype, it does seem that gay men and lesbians are more adept at giving form to thought with paint, with cloth, with the click of a camera shutter, with moving results. Perhaps the "why" should be left alone as unanswerable. Let's exult in the discipline our artists devote to their work, the impact they've had on art, their exuberance in creating life and imparting meaning using the inanimate stuff of the world.

TATTOO

by Stefan Richter

A sumptuous color photo-essay on the desire to embellish the human body with visual designs of the highest quality. From the text, fascinating details emerge about the art and the painstaking perfectionism which has always surrounded it. Astounding total body tattoos beautifully displayed in luscious color.

MALE NUDE

by Francois de Louville and Edward Lucie-Smith

Now just how many ways are there to depict a naked man? No less than forty-nine contemporary artists were invited to submit their paintings, drawings and sculpture. Their answer is stunning and mind-boggling. 156 illustrations, 124 in color.

T0380 Hardbound $30.00

BIRTH PROJECT

by Judy Chicago

The mythical, celebratory and painful aspects of birth are exquisitely represented in needle and textile art. Plenty of vibrantly colorful pictures of another Chicago project that is equal in impact to THE DINNER PARTY.

T0376 Paperback $17.95

DINNER PARTY: A Symbol of Our Heritage

by Judy Chicago

Lavishly illustrated, this book details the creative struggle of the group of women who toiled over five years to produce a work of unprecedented beauty. The result is a symbolic history of women's achievements and struggles told through 39 hand-painted plates set upon elaborately embroidered runners at a triangular table, an event that rocked the world of art with repercussions that can still be felt today, years later.

T0140 Paperback $15.95

WORDS AND PHOTOGRAPHS

By Joel-Peter Witkin

Strangely erotic, bizarre, macabre photographs. The artist began his dialogue with The Infinite when he was six years old and saw a young girl's head roll from a car accident. Prepare yourself. Quality binding and printing.

T0405 Hardbound $25.00

DRAWINGS OF THE MALE NUDE

by Don Bachardy

These drawings are not anonymous erotic depictions of nude men but distinct portraits of individuals, clearly identified by the lines on their faces, their posture and peculiar 'tattoos' of personality. Classic, ageless eroticism. Introduced by Armistead Maupin.

T0406 Hardbound $30.00

PORTRAITS

by Robert Mapplethorpe

Focusing on the personalities of our times, the photographer uses a formality that upsets our notions about the subjects: a sadomasochistic couple chained together in a typical middle class living room, a famous rock diva looking as regal and beautiful as anything Hollywood produced.

T0399 Hardbound $50.00

BALLET

by George Blatt Lynes

"George Lynes' pictures will contain, as far as I am concerned, all that will be remembered of my own repertory in one hundred years." George Balanchine. "Certainly among the greatest dance photographs ever taken." N.Y. Times. They are indeed sublime.

Fiction & Literature

This section is a veritable roll call of the literary titans. Though their homosexuality is not widely acknowledged, or given only meager mention by popular and academic critics, these pages prove that lesbians and gay men have had a monumental impact on English literature and, hence, western civilization. Popular contemporary authors, some of whom are destined to become giants themselves, are represented here, too; as well as those who pause in their rich lives to write a good read and then fold back into the mass. A critic might be hard pressed to name a people as abundant in imagination and creativity as we.

STORIES OF JOHN CHEEVER

by John Cheever

More than 50 stories present the last of that generation of chain smokers who woke the world in the morning with their coughing, got blitzed at cocktail parties and performed oblique dance steps, sailed for Europe on ships, and were truly nostalgic for love and happiness. On N.Y.T. bestseller list for 6 months.

F0202 Paperback $4.95

FALCONER

Detective & Mystery

Suspense, enigmas, thrills, eccentric characters, and, ultimately, gratification, are all found in this rather peculiar genre which requires particularly educated readers and very thoughtful authors.

Interestingly, it seems a number of writers hone their literary skills in this field, perhaps due to the comfort of a formula, and usually do a remarkably good job in manipulating that formula to throw the reader delicious twists, mind bending puzzles, and logical cul de sacs. What has been the result of writers developing, within recent years, not only gay plots, but also positive, gay-identified crime solvers? Elementary, my dear reader...more enjoyment for gay thriller fans.

Science Fiction & Fantasy

This genre has always held up mirrors to our world, and challenged our suppositions about the nature of life and our universe. Herein you'll find stories which stretch fact into fantasy: monosexual cultures on other worlds, races with biologic hermaphroditism, visions of the future, utopian worlds. Sexistly speaking, science, and thus science fiction, has seemed to be a man's world; but for more than a decade, women have been contributing mightily in both fields. Move over, Victor Hugo! Also, perhaps because of their mythological heritage linking them with the worship of the old goddess or followers of the wiccan way, women have beflowered the realm of fantasy with plenty of phantasmagorical reads.

WANDERGROUND

by Sally Miller Gearhart

An absorbing, haunting collection of tales set in a future in which women live in apart from men and male values. Already a modern classic and a major contribution to Utopian literature.

U0053 Paperback $6.95*TALES OF PATRICK MERLA

by Patrick Merla

In the tradition of Hans Christian Andersen and the Brothers Grimm, these stories are moral and mysterious, passionate and poetic. "Beautiful tales, beautifully told. I was transported. Patrick Merla knows the way to the hidden heart." Bette Midler

U0040 Paperback $3.95*FIRST BATTLE

by Melissa C. Michaels

Earther VIPs are held hostage. It was a perfect mission for the Skyriders; it was impossible. Melacha Rendell, hotshot shuttle jockey, is good enough--and crazy enough--to get inside the terrorist's defenses alone.

U0050 Paperback $2.95*MOONGATHER

Humor

Although it may seem we haven't much to laugh about as we confront a strange world which allowed us to "happen," yet seems hell-bent on silencing, reforming, or altogether removing us; we gotta keep laughing because it's good for our souls and lets that world know we've still got our wits. Every subculture develops a type of humor to trivialize and ridicule its oppressors, to apply a feather as they stand naked with every raw nerve of fear and anxiety exposed. "Camp" is our brand of "ethnic" humor; and while it can be stinging, it also allows us to laugh among ourselves and, more importantly, at ourselves. While not all the stuff herein is pure camp, just enjoy yourself and remember that to be gay is to smile in adversity's face, to relish unbridled guffaws with friends.

GAY CLICHE

by Tony Lang

Ever prone to being a victim of fashion, Your Average Gay Man (YAGM) has of late been assaulted by waves of cultural clichés more terrifying than THE INVASION OF THE BODY SNATCHERS: gentrification, brunch, clones, the nautilus machine. In this desperate situation, the author has prepared this manual for deprogramming those suffering from terminal fashion.

NEVER TELL YOUR MOTHER THIS DREAM

Sylvia, that laid back, middle-aged feminist, a fiftyish, chenille robed lady, gives her views on life, history, politics, with a beer can in her hand and a cigarette dangling from her mouth. Assisted grudgingly by her cat, her daughter and a cast of odd-ball characters, Sylvia careens through life much like the rest of us.

P STREET BEACH HANDBOOK: The Art of Gay Sunbathing in the Nation's Capitol

by Jerry T. Boyd, et al.

The Beach, the only 'official' gay park in the nation, is a field next to a stream where wildlife abounds and there's no 'bag limit!' Though this is a guide to gay sunbathing under the very nose of the government, sun worshippers everywhere will laughingly recognize the foibles of proper exposure.

N. LEIGH DUNLAP

Though she now resides in Philadelphia, Leigh is a militant native of the Midwest. There she struggled to overcome the disadvantages indigenous to that part of the country: An unbroken home, an idyllic childhood, a family that adores her to a ridiculous degree, good health, a good education, and encouragement for all her interests. Despite this, she has managed to become relatively "complex" and "interesting."

Her first artistic endeavor was a "record player" made from a block of wood, a washer, and a bent nail. It is, to this day and to her mortification, treasured by her father.

SAVOIR-FAIRY: Selections from the Comic Strip, Murphy's Manor

If the average American lives in Dayton, then the average gay lives in a closet in Dayton. So says the progenitor of these funny, pithy, and lovable comics.

J0070 Paperback $5.95

I trace the moment I became destined to be a cartoonist to my eighth year when, upon moving to a new neighborhood, another kid pelted me in the side of the head with a big rock. Apparently this had the necessary effect of jarring loose a few wires upstairs. Today, the stray electrons from these loose connections become comic strips.

When Murphy's Manor started syndication in 1982, I whited out the pseudonym "Al Heimstadt," substituting my real name. A scary thing at the time, it's never caused any problems since name recognition isn't so easy to achieve. Even the local Bible Boppers don't know about me yet.

SEXUAL SECURITY

These fine products will help you "Play Safe!"

FORPLAY SENSUAL LUBRICANT
Forplay's unique formula and long-lasting lubricity will add to your fun, comfort, and sensual pleasure. The light, smooth texture stimulates the senses and enhances the ultimate personal experience. Colorless and odorless, it will not irritate even sensitive skin and is compatible with natural and synthetic materials (will not break down condoms). Water soluble, it contains nonoxynol-9.
G0004 2 oz. $3.50
G0002 8 oz. $7.50
G0003 16 oz. $12.50

FORPLAY RUBDOWN
Rub Down is formulated as a full (all-over) body lubricant that encourages exploration. Apply this exotic unguent over the entire body, sensually exploring your partner. Conclude the process with an embrace. (Recommended for external use only).
G0005 2 oz. $3.50

MAN FORM PLUS
Anatomically shaped to feel natural plus extra lubrication for greater sensitivity. Go the healthy way with fine quality from Protex.
G0019 Pkg. of 3 $2.75

REGGAE & GOSPEL

Casselberry and Dupree are great with a powerful combination of folk harmonies and lively reggae. Sweet Honey in the Rock is a well-known group in women's music. They are a five woman a capella (no instruments) political/gospel group whose voices do more than most instrumental groups. Judy Mowatt and Rita Marley are also very good reggae artists.

Records & Tapes

While this isn't a complete list of all the music we have in stock, it should give you a good idea of what we carry, which is mostly women's music. But men! Don't go away! You have always had a forum in the mainstream music field; now, with women stepping forward as feminists, as lesbians, or as both, there has been a demand for more music which speaks to them, much of it surprisingly well-received by the public at large. There are selections for you, but we're going to make you wade through this delightful, tinkling spring of women's music to find it. We're sure you'll find plenty to please you.

We're departing from our usual course of TITLE-ARTIST-DESCRIPTION-PRICE and presenting you with a friendly little lecture which will familiarize you with what we offer so you have more of an idea of what you might like to buy. Enjoy!

FOUNDING MOTHERS

Meg Christian and Cris Williamson are the "Founding Mothers" of women's music. Their early music is very folk-y, but it progresses to pop on more recent works (FROM THE HEART, by Meg, PRAIRIE FIRE, by Cris). Even these can be considered to have a folk base, though.

The other originators of women's music are Holly Near and Margie Adam. Holly's music has always been pop, although her earlier records have a folkier sound, typical of music of the seventies.

Ferron is the other "biggie" in women's music. SHADOWS ON A DIME was on the Top Ten lists across the country in 1984. Her music is somewhere between folk and pop with a little country and rock thrown in. She's been called the "female Dylan of the '80s."

Rock has never been a main force in women's music until recently. Sue Fink, with her "technopop" synthesizer, and Lifeline, with their "urban electric" sound are basically the only ones who have ventured in to pure rock. Linda Tillery is excellent, with a combination of pop, top forty and similar sounds. The Guest Stars, an all woman "new wave" group with Laka Daisical on piano, are not very popular in the U.S. (yet).

Judy Small is amazing with beautiful and sometimes very funny lyrics. and Gayle Marie is pure pop and very good but not terribly political. Men, John Bucchino with ballads such as "Running Red Lights for You" and "That Smile" might soothe your soul.

JAZZ

With the exception of Alive!, our jazz records are piano-jazz. The music of Margie Adam is more piano-jazz oriented. HERE IS A LOVE SONG has the most beautiful collection of love songs we've ever heard. The NAKED KEYS album consists of solo piano performances by Margie and is very much a sit-at-home-by-the-fire album. The music on FIRELIGHT fits the title perfectly. City Life is one of our favorites and is jazz in the truest sense.

Why Lambda Rising?

Our name is derived from the Greek letter "lambda" (or "L" for liberation). In 1970, the Gay Activists Alliance of New York designated the orange lambda (λ) on a blue field as a symbol of gay liberation. In December 1974, the lambda was adopted as the international symbol for gay liberation by the Gay Rights Congress in Edinburgh. We chose "Lambda Rising" as the name for our bookstore to symbolize the upward growth of the struggle for full gay and lesbian equality.

Lambda Rising Milestones

June, 1974: LAMBDA RISING opens D.C.'s only gay and lesbian bookstore.

February, 1975: LAMBDA RISING airs first-ever gay oriented TV commercials.

June, 1975: FIRST ANNUAL GAY AND LESBIAN PRIDE DAY in D.C. sponsored by LAMBDA RISING draws 2,000.

June, 1976: SECOND ANNUAL GAY AND LESBIAN PRIDE DAY, sponsored by LAMBDA RISING, draws even larger crowd.

May, 1977: LAMBDA RISING acquires larger quarters, hundreds attend grand re-opening. Vandals smash windows shortly thereafter and community rallies to pay for repairs.

September, 1977: Attempts to place book ads in local high school newspapers meet opposition. Imbrolio ensues with front page coverage (and free publicity!) in WASHINGTON POST and other media.

May, 1978: LAMBDA RISING calls for formation of GAY CAUCUS of the AMERICAN BOOKSELLERS ASSOCIATION (ABA).

June, 1979: FIFTH ANNUAL GAY AND LESBIAN PRIDE DAY draws over 10,000 celebrants to the store in one day. Festival turned over to a community group.

July, 1979: LAMBDA RISING owner receives FRANKLIN E. KAMENY HUMANITARIAN AWARD for service to the gay community.

June, 1980: First community run GAY AND LESBIAN PRIDE DAY is a huge success, with LAMBDA RISING setting up a series of tables along with dozens of other community groups.

March, 1981: Acquisition of Gay Heritage Collection of rare and out-of-print books makes LAMBDA RISING the world's largest gay and lesbian bookstore.

September, 1982: LAMBDA RISING opens branch store in your mailbox with first issue of THE WHOLE GAY CATALOG.

May, 1984: ABA convention here in D.C. LAMBDA RISING and ALYSON PUBLICATIONS host largest GAY CAUCUS party ever. Over 200 booksellers and publishers celebrate together.

October, 1984: ARMISTEAD MAUPIN wades through a crowd of over 400 fans at LAMBDA RISING reception.

November, 1984: LAMBDA RISING moves to Connecticut Avenue (Main Street!) and MAYOR MARION BARRY proclaims NOVEMBER 17 as LAMBDA RISING DAY in D.C. Branch store opens in Baltimore, first-ever gay bookstore in Charm City.

January, 1985: ALLEN GINSBURG conducts first formal book signing in new D.C. store.

June, 1985: Reception for SCOTT MADSEN who signs his poster book for over 500 people.

October, 1985: LAMBDA RISING celebrates Halloween by hosting ANDY WARHOL who signed copies of his book, AMERICA, for over 1,000 costumed revelers.

March, 1986: INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH is marked by a reception for poet MICHELLE PARKERSON and an art show by the Orchid Master, SARA STEELE. LAMBDA RISING forms an official delegation and marches on the CAPITOL with other SUFFRAGISTS during the MARCH FOR WOMEN'S LIVES.

June, 1986: LAMBDA RISING hosts RITA MAY BROWN as part of its activities during an inimitably successful GAY AND LESBIAN PRIDE DAY.

August, 1986: THE WHOLE GAY CATALOG, third edition, is issued with full-color, glossy cover and expanded range of merchandise.
